Help Build a New Legacy!

The Baltimore Civitas School

The Baltimore Civitas School is a new 6-12 public school, focused on the theme of being an engaged citizen and partnered with Johns Hopkins University. We are starting in the fall with 6th and 9th graders, and need to build a teacher team for each of those grades. On Saturday, April 26th, we are hosting an Interview Day to review potential applicants in all subjects. The day will include straight interviews, group problem solving, and a read/discuss section. It should be an interesting day, with chances to meet the school leaders and network with teachers from around the city.

DATE: APRIL 26, 2008
TIME: 10-1

We will take walk-ins, but would much appreciate a chance to review resumes. A head's up on your attendance would be much appreciated.
